4. The Hand of Toshiko Takaezu

This exhibition features the work of one of America's greatest living artist's and is made possible by her remarkable generosity. In 2006, Toshiko Takaezu (1922-) donated 14 ceramics from her personal collection to the Zanesville Art Center. The Art Center had purchased three works from the artist in 1963. while she was still head of the Ceramics Department at the Cleveland institute of Art. The exhibition will also include a fine selection of pieces from the collection of Ron Wetherell.

5. Working Effectively with Japanese Colleagues: November 6, 2007 in Columbus IN and November 13 in Columbus OH. Deadline is Friday before the seminar.

Americans who work with Japanese usually have many questions, but no good place to get the answers. This seminar is an opportunity to get questions answered by an expert on Japanese culture who is highly skilled in explaining the intricacies of Japanese business and society. There are two different locations for this event, both being in cities named Columbus. Fee is $275 per person. Please go to the website Working Effectively for all the details regarding both events.

6. 11th Annual Ikenobo Ikebana Flower Arrangement Exhibition Sunday November 11, 2007 10:30am – 6:00pm.

Come and experience the traditional Ikenobo-Style Japanese Ikebana arrangement. Special attractions include workshops, demonstrations, miniature displays as well as café corners. The event is at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, 600 Metro Place North, Dublin, Ohio 43017. For additional details go to Ikebana event, e-mail Ikebana_Room101@yahoo.com or call the society at 614-717-0259.

7. Experience International Education Week Nov. 12-16

Ohio State is celebrating diversity and welcoming the exchange of ideas and cultures during the eighth annual International Education Week, from Monday (11/12)-Friday (11/16), a joint initiative established by the U.S. Departments of Education and State. As Ohio State continues its commitment to internationalization and global awareness, now is the time to broaden awareness and understanding of world viewpoints and invest in the future. Faculty and staff are encouraged to take advantage of the international education opportunities that Ohio State has to offer. For a calendar of international events, visit the Office of International Affairs' Web site at <http://oia.osu.edu>.
